

1. Admission

All companies shall be admitted whose commodities or products are part of the pigeon racing industry. Exhibitors shall not be entitled to let space in whole or in part to any third parties. Transporters may be exhibited.

2. Registration

A single copy of any registration forms shall be sent by the exhibitor to the organizer. The second copy shall be retained by the exhibitor as a file copy.

By registering, the exhibitor undertakes to recognize the exhibition terms and contractual terms pursuant to § 145 of the BGB [German Civil Code].

The pickage incurred shall be paid in any case – even if the reservation cannot be utilized on any unexpected reasons. In exceptional cases, 25 per cent of the costs incurred may be reimbursed if the reservation can be transferred to another party by the manager of the exhibition.

If the event cannot take place because of force majeure (natural catastrophies, war, livestock epidemic), a reimbursement of the stand fee cannot be claimed.

The closing date of registration for the world exhibition is 10th july 2017. Should the halls be fully reserved at an earlier date, no guarantee for a stand area can be given. This also applies if the registration form is received within the set period.

3. Allocation of stands

The allocation of stands by the management of the exhibition is carried out on the basis of the stand size and stand number indicated in writing. When allocating the stands, the management attempts to comply with the wishes of exhibitors as far as possible. Preference will be given to those who book early.

By end of september 2017 all exhibitors will receive a plan of the hall with their stand. The rental agreement shall be deemed to have been concluded upon written confirmation of the stand by the management of the exhibition.

Should changes in the allocation of areas become subsequently necessary, the exhibitors concerned shall be informed in good time. They shall, however, not be entitled to cancel their contract or claim damages on the reasons of these changes.

4. Arrangement and equipment

The arrangement and equipping of the stands shall be effected by the exhibitors themselves. The layout of the stands shall comply with the statutory provisions and the regulations of police law. Stand height including decorative material should not exceed 3.00 metres. Depth of the stands is 3 metres. Minimum size is 3 x 3 metres.

5. Protection of existing fixtures and fittings

The exhibitor shall be liable for any damage caused by the exhibitor, his or her personnel or suppliers, to the exhibition buildings or their fixtures and fittings.

Any installations, lighting appliances, hydrants, fire extinguishers, signs and similar objects shall be treated with care by the exhibitor and must not be altered or transferred to a different location. Any hydrants and electrical distribution boxes must not be obstructed.

6. Stand walls

Any display walls may be wallpapered by the exhibitor or a contractor. Wallpaper shall be affixed with water-soluble glue. Display walls shall be restored to their original condition after use. Any borrowed stand elements shall be treated duly and with care by the borrower.

7. Delivery of goods

The exhibitors may deliver goods to the exhibition grounds one hour prior to the beginning of the exhibition and one hour after the end of the exhibition.

8. Cleaning

The cleaning of the aisles shall be effected by the management of the exhibition. Each exhibitor shall be responsible for cleaning his own stand in the evenings. Minor waste may be deposited in the containers along the aisles.

The organiser shall not assume any responsibility for exhibits and equipment of stands and excludes any liability for damage and loss.

9. Periods of payment

The debts invoiced shall be paid as follows: Immediately after the receipt of the invoice. (Invoices will be sent out end of September) The total amount of any invoices issued at a later date shall be paid immediately after receipt. If the claims for payment are not or not fully satisfied, the entitlement to the rented area shall become forfeited. The hirer shall in any case be liable for the payment of the full amount of his or her rent within the set period.

10. Vaccination certificates for all pigeons

A copy of the vaccination certificate for the pigeons exhibited must be presented on demand. There is no limit to the number of pigeons exhibited per stand.

11. Parking facilities

The showground in Kassel is located very conveniently on the motorway network. Sufficient parking area free of charge is available to exhibitors and visitors. Parking spaces are allocated by the parking attendant.

Please note!!

All exhibitors are obligated to take away their packing material such as cardboard boxes, foils, pallets and all stand material such as wood laths, carpets etc.

The utilisation of any disposable tableware or non deposit bottles is not permitted in any of the fair halls.
